

Mrs. Hicks' High School English III Syllabus

Objective: The objective of English III is to study American Literature. We will read novels, short stories, poetry, and other types of literature all of which will be written by American authors.

Goals: The goal of this course is to teach students skills that will help them be successful in this class as well as in the future, whether it be college readiness or helping them be prepared to enter the workforce.

Expectations: I expect you to come to class prepared and ready to learn!

Rules and Expectations:

- 1) Be respectful and kind to me as well as each other- this includes talking over me, interrupting me/others, name calling, insulting each other. These things will not be tolerated.
- 2) Do not be tardy- once you receive three tardies you will serve lunch detention. If tardiness becomes a chronic problem, Mr. Hicks will determine what punishment will be appropriate.
- 3) Come to class with your materials and prepared to learn.
- 4) No sleeping in class
- 5) No food or drinks in class except water. (There will be exceptions at times, such as movie parties.)
- 6) HAVE FUN!

Below are listed the stories and novels we will be reading this year.
